

Rick Henderson, managing editor of Carolina Journal, joins host Donna Martinez to discuss the indictment of state Sen. R.C. Soles (D-Columbus) on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious bodily injury.

Will Soles' legal trouble help the Republicans take back the General Assembly from the Democrats? Wake County Democratic Party Chairman Jack Nichols and his counterpart, Claude Pope, chairman of the Wake County Republican Party, weigh in on the Soles story.

He will also discuss Democratic prospects for beating Sen. Richard Burr, the implications of Karl Rove's scheduled fundraiser for Burr, the impact of the upcoming health insurance vote on members of North Carolina's congressional delegation and the Democratic National Committee's plan to limit the power of the superdelegates.
