RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - A state audit of the financial statement of Halifax Community College has produced one or more findings considered reportable.

Auditor Beth Wood's' office released the results on Thursday. The Report Summary states:

The results of our audit identified a matter that is considered reportable under Government Auditing Standards. The College prepared financial statements and related note disclosures contained misstatements that were corrected as a result of our audit. Details about this item are provided in the Audit Findings and Responses section of the report.
