

State Board of Education Task Force on Summative Assessment To Meet Friday

By Administrator
Thursday, 12 February 2015 05:51 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - A task force digging into details of assessment in North Carolina public schools will meet Friday in the state Education building in downtown Raleigh.

The Department of Public Instruction-released agenda includes:

- a discussion of the proposed assessment recommendations from the elementary, middle and high school study groups
- the business perspective on educational assessment
- proposed assessment and accountability recommendations in relation to test and measurement considerations.