

DPI To Host 2016 Home Base Symposium

By Administrator

Thursday, 28 January 2016 06:39 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Educators looking for in-depth training in a variety of education information systems will find it at the 30th annual Home Base Symposium hosted by the Department of Public Instruction.

The event will be held in Greensboro February 10 to 12.

Training areas include PowerSchool, Schoolnet, TNL and other Home Base applications, according to the department website.

A full agenda can be found at http://www.nc-sis.org/Documents/symp_2016/Sessions_at_a_Glance.pdf.

Registration is $140 to $250 depending on date registered. Details are available at <http://www.nc-sis.org/symposium16.html>