

Bennett Collette Professor Appointed To N.C. African-American Heritage Commission

By Administrator

Monday, 08 February 2016 06:52 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Dr. Valerie Ann Johnson of Bennett College has been appointed by Gov. Pat McCrory to the state's African-American Heritage Commission.

She is Mott Distinguished Professor of Women's Studies, Director of Africana Women's Studies and former Associate Director of the Honors Program at Bennett College in Greensboro.

The commission advises the Secretary of Natural and Cultural Resources in the preservation, interpretation, and promotion of African-American history, arts, and culture.

Dr. Johnson received her Ph.D. in Medical Anthropology from the University of California, Berkeley, M.A. in Sociology from Atlanta University, and B.A. in Sociology from Spelman College.