RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Gov. Pat McCrory has appointed new board members to five North Carolina community college trustee boards.

Trustees have a variety of oversight duties including electing the president, purchasing land, monitoring financial status fo the institution, and more.

The appointees are:

** Cleveland Community College Board of Trustees

Alan Norman (Cleveland County) - Norman is the Sheriff of Cleveland County. He has almost 30 years of law enforcement experience including 23 years with the Cleveland County Sheriff's Office. He is a graduate of Central Piedmont Community College.

** Brunswick Community College Board of Trustees

Mark Bachara (Brunswick County) - Bachara is an attorney at Bachara and Essey in Oak Island. He has practiced there for over three years and previously worked as an assistant district attorney and an adjunct faculty member at Wesleyan College. He has a B.A. in Political Science from University of Arkansas, J.D. from University of Baltimore School of Law and MBA from University of Baltimore.

** Rockingham Community College Board of Trustees

Elizabeth Maddrey (Rockingham County) - Maddrey is a retired education and civic volunteer. Along with her husband, Joseph, they have endowed the Elizabeth H. and Joseph G. Maddrey Scholarship at Rockingham Community College. This is a reappointment.

** Durham Technical Community College Board of Trustees

Roderick "Rick" D. Adams, Jr. (Durham County) - Adams began his career as a Financial Advisor with Wheat First Butcher Singer in 1989 and has remained with the firm as it transitioned to Wells Fargo Advisors. Rick is now a Managing Partner at the Adams Chetwood Wealth Management Group. He earned a Bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He also spent a year of study in a graduate economics program in Pennsylvania where he learned to apply the principles of macroeconomics to stock analysis to help his clients make informed investment decisions.
