

Rutherford County School Board Member Appointed To Southern Regional Education Board

By Administrator

Thursday, 05 May 2016 05:20 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Brandon Gosey, an Adult High School Coordinator at Isothermal Community College, will join the board that develops regional educational services for schools in the South.

Gosey is a former Special Education teacher in Rutherford County Schools and sits on the local school board.

His terms on the Southern Regional Education Board expires in 2019. The organization represents 16 southern states and Texas.

Gov. Pat McCrory and Lt. Gov. Dan Forest are also members.