

Help Wanted At Government Accountability Office (GAO)

By Administrator

Monday, 18 January 2016 05:47 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - The federal government's key watchdog is looking for employees to help oversee federal agencies' output on behalf of the American people.

The website of the General Accountability Office (GAO) shows seven current openings with beginning salaries ranging from $30,200 to $87,000.

Recruitment is underway for:

-  Program Analyst
-  Financial Auditor Undergraduate Intern
-  Financial Auditor Graduate Intern
-  IT Specialist
-  Communications Analyst

The details can be found at gao.gov.