

Chatham County Boasts Highest Per-Capita Income In North Carolina

By Administrator

Monday, 22 December 2014 06:22 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Looking to locate in the most well off county in the state? Move to Chatham. At $53,336, the county boasts the highest per-capita income in the state, according to the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis.

Orange, Mecklenburg and Wake counties were second, third, and fourth respectively.

Full data on North Carolina's economic status can be found at <http://bea.gov/index.htm>