RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Veteran elected officials in western and eastern North Carolina have the opportunity to hone their skills at a workshop being offered by the North Carolina League of Municipalities.

The Leadership for Veteran Elected Officials event will be held in Asheville February 11 and in New Bern February 18.

According to NCLM:

“The LeaderShop is a workshop series offered across the state annually in conjunction with the Essentials of County/Municipal Government program. The 2-hour state mandated ethics training is included as poart of the program.

Conflict on a board is inevitable. Many decisions have long term and serious consequences requiring all sides of an issue to be heard. Effective board members know how to encourage difficult conversations, respectfully disagree, and continue working together.”
