RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Greensboro attorney Jonathan Kreider will fill the district court seat held by retired District Court Judge Linda Falls.

Kreider has been the managing attorney at the Greensboro office of Dummit Fradin since 2012. His practice concentrates on criminal defense, including work on homicide, DWI, felony drug cases and various misdemeanors. His civil case load includes personal injury, workers' compensation and family law cases.

Prior to that, he owned and practiced law at Kreider Law from 2010 to 2012.

Kreider earned his law degree from Wake Forest University School of Law in 2008.
