

Rockingham County Commissioner Keith Mabe Heads To Jail For DWI

By Administrator

Wednesday, 18 November 2015 07:01 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Rockingham County Commissioner Keith Mabe will spend two months in jail to atone for two incidents of driving while impaired.

The Associated Press reports that Mabe was sentenced on DWI counts and possession of an open container.

The incidents occurred this summer and late last year.

Mabe is one of five county commissioners. He lives in Eden.