RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - David Bone has more duties to add to his plate. The Martin County Manager has been appointed to the state's 911 Board, which oversees the state's 911 plan and revenues.

Bone is filling an unexpired seat.

Prior to his position, he was the Town Manager for the Town of Wendell and the Town of Elizabethtown, North Carolina, where he administered a more than $5 million annual budget.

He is also member of the North Carolina City/County Managers Association. Bone earned a Master's Degree in Public Administration from North Carolina Central University.
