

First Mobile DMV Office Debuts In Polk, Clay and Graham Counties

By Administrator

Thursday, 28 January 2016 06:24 - Last Updated Thursday, 28 January 2016 06:25

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Dealing with the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) just got a whole lot easier with the debut of the state's mobile DMV office in three North Carolina counties over the next week.

Residents of Columbus, in Polk County, will be first stop on the DMV tour Thursday. The office carries two driver license examiner stations. It will be open for business at the Polk County License Plate Agency at 51 Walker St. in Columbus, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Thursday.

The schedule:

Hayesville
Clay County Social Services
1 Riverside Circle
Feb. 2, Feb. 9, Feb. 16, Feb. 23
9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

Robbinsville
Graham County Social Services
196 Knight St.
Feb. 3, Feb. 17
8:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Columbus
Polk County License Plate Agency
51 Walker St.
Feb. 4, Feb. 11, Feb. 18, Feb. 25
9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.