

NCLM's Latest Edition Of "LINC'ed IN" Now Available

By Administrator

Wednesday, 27 April 2016 06:04 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - As the legislative session gets underway, the North Carolina League of Municipalities is reporting on bills that are in play and that impact local governments.

The new edition of "LINC'ed IN" also reviews the status of House Bill 2, as well as the governor's proposed budget.

Members interested in participating in Town Hall Day at the legislature can also find information about the June 8 event in which local officials descend on the legislature to talk with lawmakers about local issues and bills.

The new issue is available at nclm.org.