

North Carolina Boundary Commission Agenda For January 22 Meeting

By Administrator

Monday, 20 January 2014 13:17 - Last Updated Monday, 20 January 2014 13:18

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - The five-member commission responsible for determining exact state boundary lines will meet on Wednesday to prepare for the joint North Carolina/South Carolina Boundary Commission meeting in February.

The agenda for Wednesday's 1 to 5 p.m. meeting is below. The group will gather at the Legislative Office Building on Salisbury Street in downtown Raleigh. where the joint commission will discuss reestablishing state boundary lines.

1 – 4:15 p.m.

Proposed impact reduction legislation

4:15 – 4:30 p.m.

Meeting plans for the NC-SC Boundary Commission

4:30 – 5:00 p.m.

Next steps for surveying the NC –VA boundary