

Appointments To The State Community Corrections Advisory Board

By Administrator

Monday, 21 April 2014 14:19 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Law enforcement officials have been tapped for seats on the state's Community Corrections Advisory Board, which monitors and evaluates community-based corrections programs, among other duties. The term length is three years. The appointees are:

- Phillip Redmond (Iredell County) – Redmond is the sheriff of Iredell County.

- Scott Cunningham (Forsyth County) – Dr. Cunningham is the chief of the Kernersville Police Department.

- Robert Clinkscales (Perquimans County) – Clinkscales is the director of Barnabas House of North Carolina.

- George O'Briant (Wake County) – O'Briant is a case management director for the Durham County Criminal Justice Resource Center.

- Linwood Britton (Chowan County) – Britton is the vice president of plant operations with Jimbo's Jumbo Peanuts in Edenton.