RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) -The Economic Investment Committee will hold a special meeting on Monday, April 28 to consider Job Development Investment Grant applications and take up such other matters as may come before the body at the meeting, the Commerce Department has announced.

Because the Committee may discuss matters relating to the location or expansion of industries or other businesses in the area served by the public body and possible tentative economic development incentives and confidential information associated with them, it is anticipated that, consistent with N.C. Gen. Stat. 143-318.11(a)(1) and (a)(4) of the Open Meetings Act, those discussions will occur in closed session. The meeting will take place at 9 a.m. in the N.C. Department of Commerce small conference room located on the fourth floor of the Education Building at 301 N. Wilmington Street in Raleigh.
