RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Upon learning of the death of former state legislator Jim Gulley, Gov. Pat McCrory released the following statement.

Rep. Gulley served House District 103 in Mecklenburg County from 1997 until 2011.

“Jim Gulley represented the region in which he was born, educated, built a business and raised a family with his wife and high-school sweetheart, Suzanne,” Governor McCrory said. “His sole motivation for seeking political office was to serve his fellow citizens, many of whom he saw in church, at the football fields where he coached, or during charitable events where he donated his time and talent. He was a public servant who truly put the public first.”
