RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - The Economic Investment Committee will hold a special meeting on Friday, June 13, according to the state Department of Commerce.

The Committee will consider Job Development Investment Grant applications and take up such other matters as may come before the body at the meeting. The meeting will be held at 2:00 p.m. in the Commerce Board Room located on the fourth floor of the Education Building at 301 N. Wilmington St. in Raleigh.

The Commerce statement said that because the Committee may discuss matters relating to the location or expansion of industries or other businesses in the area served by the public body and possible tentative economic development incentives and confidential information associated with them, it is anticipated that those discussions will occur in closed session.
