

U.S. And N.C. Flags To Be Lowered For Patriot DAY

By Administrator

Wednesday, 10 September 2014 13:57 - Last Updated Wednesday, 10 September 2014 13:58

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Department of Administration Secretary Bill Daughtride has notified agency officials that all U.S. and North Carolina flags should be lowered in honor of Patriot Day on September 11.

Gov. Pat McCrory ordered the flags to half-staff on all state facilities from sunrise to sunset. The governor said in a statement that the lowering of flags unites North Carolinians in remembrance and prayer for the country.