RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Gov. Pat McCrory delivered the biennial State of the State address on Wednesday, February 4, 2015. In a speech that spanned roughly one hour and 10 minutes, the governor laid out a plan for his goals:

- creating jobs for everyone who wants a job
- providing students with the skills necessary for 21st century jobs
- connecting rural and urban centers with upgraded transportation access
- improving public safety and medical coverage for the vulnerable
- continuing efforts to make government more efficient

A full transcript of the speech can be found at governor.state.nc.us.

Facts sheets produced by the governor's office supporting key themes of the speech can also be found at that website.
