RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Michael Sprayberry, one of North Carolina's most experienced emergency management officials, has been appointed to the Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA) National Advisory Council (NAC).

Sprayberry is the Emergency Management Director for the N.C. Department of Public Safety.

He will serve a three-year term on the council, which ensures effective and ongoing coordination of federal emergency management activities.

The committee Sprayberry is joining includes representatives from a wide array of backgrounds and communities involved or affected by the emergency management profession.

The NAC consists of up to 35 members.
