RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Gov. Pat McCrory's office says he will unveil on Friday his proposed adjustments to the Fiscal Year 2016-17 general operating budget for the state.

The General Assembly reconvenes on Monday for the "short" legislative session, with the No. 1 priority as negotiatign and agreeing upon the revenue and spending plan for the year that begins July 1.

In a tweet Thursday, the governor's office said the budget will:

- increase average teacher pay to $50,000
- improve mental health services
- reward state employees

The current operating plan is $21.7 billion.
