

Democrats Are Now The Majority On NC Supreme Court

By Donna Martinez

Thursday, 10 November 2016 13:38 -

The North Carolina Supreme Court now has a majority of justices who are registered Democrats after Wake County Superior Court Judge Mike Morgan against defeated Associate Justice Bob Edmunds who has served on the court since 2001. With Morgan's election, the court has four Democrats and three Republicans. Morgan, who has been a judge since 1989, was endorsed by President Barack Obama.