RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - The North Carolina Republican Party didn't waste time responding to Hillary Clinton's announcement that she is seeking the Democratic Party's nomination for president.

In an email, state party chairman Claude Pope asked conservatives to help stop the former secretary of state. The email is below.

"Fellow Republican,

Hillary Clinton made it official today. She's running for president.

It's time to show the liberal establishment that conservatives across the country stand united against Hillary Clinton.

We must get 100,000 conservatives to pledge to STOP Hillary Clinton today.

We're counting on you to join conservatives in North Carolina and sign the pledge right now <http://gop.cm/60004D7q>

By signing the pledge today, you'll become a core part of the GOP grassroots army in North Carolina committed to defeating Hillary Clinton. And you'll get a free bumper sticker to show your friends and neighbors that you're a part of this important team.

We need you to join our fight in North Carolina right now so we can stop Hillary Clinton from Day One.

Pledge to stop Hillary Clinton right now — and get a free bumper sticker.

Thanks,

Chairman Claude E. Pope, Jr."
