

King Resident Kyle Hall Chosen To Replace Rep. Bryan Holloway In House District 99

By Administrator

Friday, 13 November 2015 06:30 -

RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - When Kyle King takes his new position in the North Carolina House, he will become the youngest member of the General Assembly.

Hall, 25, was selected by Stokes and Rockingham county Republicans to replace Bryan Holloway, who resigned to become a lobbyist.

Hall has been a staff member for 6th District Congressman Mark Walker and formerly worked for the conservative activist organization Americans for Prosperity.