RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - No matter who wins the 2016 election for North Carolina Attorney General, it will be a new face and leader in the job. Four candidates have filed for the seat, according to the state Board of Elections.

Democratic incumbent Attorney General Roy Cooper is running for governor.

The candidates, two Democrats and two Republicans, are:

- Josh Stein (D)
- Marcus Williams (D)
- Buck Newton (R)
- Jim O'Neill (R)

The full list of candidates can be found at ncsbe.gov.
