RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - Saying she has the passion to improve the lives of African-Americans, Congressman G.K. Butterfield has endorsed Hillary Clinton for president.

Butterfield is a Democrat who represents North Carolina's 1st congressional district. He is also chairman of the Congressional Black Caucus.

"This past summer in South Carolina, Clinton used words you never hear from Republican candidates and acknowledged our country's "serious problems with race and justice and systematic racism," the congressman wrote at grio.com.
