Greg Taylor, the first man to be exonerated on murder charges by the NC Innocence Inquiry Commission and the NC Commission on Actual Innocence after serving 17 years in prison, joined Rick Martinez to discuss his ordeal. Greg Taylor's mother, Martine Strickland, also joined the conversation to discuss the emotional and financial impact this situation has had on the Taylor family.