Host Donna Martinez talks with Carolina Journal Managing Editor Rick Henderson about a third Democrat who wants to challenge Sen. Richard Burr as well as contenders for Insurance Commissioner and Secretary of State. The two also discuss new data on the presidential race and who is getting support from state Tea Party activists. Then we hear from Gov. Pat McCrory as he signed a bill to protect newborn babies. Then Martinez talks with Lt. Gov . Dan Forest about the state's infrastructure bond that will appear on the March primary ballot and about his reasons for seeking re-election.
